

Whose Candidate Ferguson Is

A STATEMENT IN REGARD TO THE HOUSTON ICE AND BREWING COMPANY CHECK

Temple, Texas, 3:45 p. m., July 15, 1916.

STERLING P. STRONG, Chairman Morris Campaign, Dallas, Texas.

During the year 1914, when James E. Ferguson was making his campaign for Governor of Texas, I was vice president of the Temple State Bank. I state to the public that it was a positive fact, which can not be truthfully denied, that James E. Ferguson sent a telegram to an official in the Temple State Bank to come to Fort Worth. This trip was made, and this official returned from Fort Worth with $10,000 in currency in a hand bag, and this money was deposited in the Temple State Bank and used by Mr. Ferguson. The said official stated that the money had been given to him at the Westbrook Hotel by the said James E. Ferguson. At another time this same official made a trip out of Temple and returned with another $10,000 which he said had been given him by James E. Ferguson and which amount was likewise deposited in the Temple State Bank. At another time a check bearing the name of the Houston Ice and Brewing Company for $10,000 was turned in to the bank. All three of these items, making a total of $30,000, were used to cover Ferguson's campaign expenses.

The above statement contains unvarnished and condemning facts. In regard to the statement to the effect that I was fired from the Temple State Bank because I could not keep the books or the cash straight I have this to say, hear me: As vice president of the bank my work was of an executive nature and I was not directly responsible for either the books or the cash. Every bank president, bank cashier and bank messenger in the State of Texas knows this to be true, and the statement that I was fired because I could not keep the books or cash straight is a blatant fabrication which has been put out for campaign purposes. My standing is well known in Bell County—will be vouched for by every lover of good government and by every other man whose moral conscience has not been prostituted by the saloon-lovers of the State.

The Canyon City School Fund

The clean-minded and clean-handed citizens of Texas will be interested in the following:

The insurance money received by the State of Texas after the burning of the State Normal Building at Canyon City amounted to $100,000. This fund was distributed among several Texas banks, upon which the State of Texas earned an interest rate of 5 per cent. When James E. Ferguson was inducted into office he withdrew this $100,000, together with $2600 accrued interest, from the various banks and deposited the total sum in his own bank at Temple, Texas. This money remained in the Ferguson bank approximately 12 months, and when demand was made by the Board of Regents for the money and its accrued interest your "business Governor" declined and refused to pay one cent of interest thereon. And he did not pay any interest whatever.

Austin, Texas, 10 p. m., July 15, 1916.

MORRIS HEADQUARTERS, Dallas, Texas:

Your telegram of even date herewith, addressed to me as chairman of the Board of Regents for State Normal Schools, in which you ask for information concerning the insurance money of West Texas Normal of Canyon, has been received. Will advise that this money was paid over by Colquitt to Ferguson on inauguration day, and was under Ferguson's control after that date. Colquitt collected during his control of the funds about $2500 interest, and of course the board expected interest in final settlement with Ferguson, but no interest was paid by him.

(Signed) SAM SPARKS,

President Board of Regents, State Normal Schools.

REGENT STREET IS GETTING SOME NEEDED IMPROVEMENTS.

Curb and Gutter Being Put Down; Car Track to Be Moved and Street Is to Be Graded.

Some badly needed improvements are in progress on Regent Street from Anderson to Burleson Streets, running parallel with the Civic League Park. A new curb and gutter has been placed on the east side of the street, the car track is to be moved to the center of the street and the street graded and covered with gravel.

Another much needed improvement right in this immediate section is Burleson Street, running from the H. & T. C. tracks to Dallas Street. The condition of this street is deplorable, curb and gutters are needed, the grading of the street is bad and people passing through Bryan on trains get a very bad impression of our streets as this thoroughfare is seen more plainly than any other one in the city. The Eagle predicts that after calling attention to this matter that some of the live wires who own property on this street will soon have the matter up and the improvements will be made.

All, or nearly all, the members of the bar in many other counties in Texas have signed indorsements of Judge Morrow for this high position. The indorsement given by the Dallas County bar is signed by about 250 lawyers, many of whom are known throughout the State as men of the highest ability. In every section of the State Judge Morrow's candidacy has received the approval of men in every walk of life. His friends have been active in his behalf. His election appears certain, and if his friends continue their activity his majority will be overwhelming. We appeal to the Democrats of Texas to elect this man and give the people the services of one of the ablest lawyers in the State—a man qualified for the place according to every test.
